

New Immigration Booklet Simplifies Complex Rules and Requirements For 2005 Green Card Lottery

Santa Barbara, July 15, 2005 - The diversity visa lottery is a complex process that can make or break a family's entry into the United States. Each year millions apply for a green card, but many fail because they do not follow the ever-changing requirements or have prior knowledge of the rules. Marybeth Rael and J. Stephen Wilson today announce the publication of Win the Green Card Lottery! for DV-2007. Now in its fourth major edition, this booklet is now available at <http://www.mygreencard.com> and Amazon.com via Print on Demand (POD) and as an e-book.

Edited by James T. Daly, Attorney At Law, Win the Green Card Lottery! outlines the entire procedure from entering the lottery to obtaining a permanent resident visa. They also offer the only independent review of lottery services for those who need third party assistance. Based on the latest changes in immigration law, this inexpensive guide provides over 20 crucial tips and essential guidelines to help eliminate common mistakes throughout the process, plus an entire chapter devoted to lottery winners. With these easy-to-read instructions green card lottery entrants will:

- Submit photographs that meet current State Department requirements,
- Understand the latest lottery rules and successfully register online,
- Comprehend confusing regulations for registering family members,
- Determine qualifications for alternate state chargeability,
- Know when to contact an attorney,
- Recognize why lottery entrants are disqualified,
- Enter multiple applications where instructed,
- Avoid costly pitfalls that prevent applicants from obtaining a visa,
- Know what to do if out of status and win the lottery,
- Identify other ways to get a green card,
- Pass their visa interview, and more.

"I'd recommend Win the Green Card Lottery! to all my International Students. It's also a textbook for Foreign Student Advisors."-John Diaz, International Student Advisor.

Author Marybeth Rael wrote Win the Green Card Lottery! based on her experience with the American Green Card Lottery Network, a lottery service she established to help prospective immigrants prepare diversity visa applications. She also wrote the first book dedicated to the visa lottery published by Self-Counsel Press in 2002.
